- (vi) for the cancellation of any order made for the recovery of any arrears; or
 - (vii) for the refund of any penalty recovered; or
 - (viii) for the cancellation of any order imposing any penalty.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The Supreme Court in Messrs. Jagdish Chand Radhey Sham Vs. The State of Punjab and Others (Civil Appeal No. 1099 of 1967) declared section 9 of the Capital of Punjab (Development and Regulation) Act, 1952 (Punjab Act XXVII of 1952), as in force in the Union territory of Chandigarh, as being violative of articles 14 and 19(1)(f) of the Constitution and held that the Central Government is not entitled to resume the site or building transferred under section 3 of that Act, or to forfeit the money paid in respect of such transfer under the said section 9. The main ground on which the Supreme Court had based its conclusions was that there is nothing in the Act to guide the exercise of power by the Government as to when and how any of the methods for recovering the amount of consideration in arrears specified in sections 3, 8 and 9 of the Act, will be chosen.

- 2. The decision of the Supreme Court has created several practical lifficulties in administering the provisions of the Act. Further, the situation created by the decision of the Supreme Court is already having an adverse effect on the regulation and development of the entire city of Chandigarh, which has been planned and developed with great care and it considerable expense over the past several years. It is, therefore, essential to remove the objections pointed out by the Supreme Court by imending the Act retrospectively from the 1st of November, 1966, being he date on which the Union territory of Chandigarh was formed, and to validate the actions taken under the impugned provisions of the Act.
 - 3. The Bill seeks to achieve the aforesaid objectives.
